DISAPPOINTMENT.

I shot an arrow upward,
Aiming to the skies.
Joyous, hopeful, up it flew,
As the eagle flies.

Socn troubles met the arrow In its upward flight— Jealously the storm-king bold Fought it with his might.

Weary, trembling, flutt'ring, Like a wounded bird, Down it fell to earth again, None it's sorrows heard. -J. M. W. in Gilroy Advoc. to.

Co-operative Nursery and Fruit Co. Notably among the enterprises that have been put on foot in this city during the present season may be mentioned the Co-operative Nursery and Fruit Company of Los Angeles county. This company was incorporated June 5th, 1874, by men who are well known in Southern California in the nursery business. On the 19th of June a meeting of stockholders was held, at which by-laws were adopted and the following Board of Directors elected, to hold office for one year: THOS. A. GAREY, MILTON THOMAS, JOHN S. THOMPSON, O. W. CHILDS and ISAAC S. SMITH. After the adjournment of the stockholders, a meet-MILTON THOMAS; Secretary, L. M. HOLT; Treasurer, JOHN G. DOWNEY. A few days after the organization of the Board, the entire capital stock-$250,000-was taken, and more called for. The practical work of the company has been already commenced, nature of the enterprise will permit. A contract with H. J. Crow has been said trees to the company between the 1st of March and the 1st of July of next year, at their nursery grounds. Mr. Crow has planted the seed from one hundred and fifty barrels of oranges, and is to plant more. The young plants have already made their appearance and are growing finely. land. A few days since they purchased eighty acres of land from J. Q. A. STANLEY, located on the east side of San Pedro street, about one mile from the city limits, and fifty-three acres from S. HALEY, located on the west side of San Pedro street, still nearer the city limits. These two pieces of about one mile on San Pedro street, land is said to be the very best for the nursery business that can be found in Los Angeles county. Water can be had from the city for irrigation purposes; but the company proposes to become entirely independent of the city in this respect. On the fifty-three acre tract they already have an artesian well which brings an abundance of water to within a few feet of the surface. This will be lifted at small expense into a large reservoir and distributed at pleasure. Work will be commenced on the company's lands early the coming Fall, and during the Winter and Spring months the entire tracts will be put in a high state of cultivation and covered with nursery and orchard. The leading men engaged in this company are practical nurserymen and have made money at the business in Los Angeles county. It is understood that Messrs. GAREY, THOMAS, CHILDS and CROW intend to close out their private nurseries as Eight years ago Thos. A. GAREY, Angora Goats. Mr. WILLIAM M. LANDRUM, of the firm of LANDRUM & RODGERS, of Watsonville, Santa Cruz county, passed this city yesterday with 1,025 Angora goats of different grades that he is taking to Guadalupe Island, which lies some distance from the mainland two hundred miles south of San Diego. This island contains 166,400 acres, thirty-eight square miles of which are covered with cedar timber and three square miles with pine. It is owned by a comof the following officers: President, pany, of which the firm named are THOS. A. GAREY; Vice - President, members. This company now have 40,000 goats on the island. Mr. LAN-DRUM is entitled to the credit of being the pioneer thoroughbred Angora goat breeder on the Pacific coast. He brought two of these goats from Missouri across the plains in 1861, and he now has at Watsonville two hundred and is being pushed as rapidly as the pure Angoras-about one-third of all there is in the United States. The band he is now driving south contains made, the terms of which require that different grades, from the nearly pure gentleman to sprout and care for Angora down to the almost common 500,000 orange trees, 100,000 lime trees goat. The Germans and Local Option.

An item is passing around that the German Convention recently held at Sacramento passed a resolution to the effect that they would support no candidate for office who would not pledge himself in writing beforehand that he would oppose all and every one of the radical temperance measures now urged or that may be urged hereafter. This is an error which justice to our German population demands should be corrected. The convention was not a German Convention in the strict sense of the term. It was a Turner Bund Convention-a gymnastic association-and did not in form, though to a certain extent it did in fact, represent the German element of the country. The Turners did adopt a resolution expressing in sentiment almost precisely what is credited to the "German Convention" which was never held. The right of the Turners to in his skull. Thoughts for Sanday Meditation.

"Search the Scriptures." This is a command from Heaven, and ought to be obeyed by all people; and is obeyed to some extent by all the members of the various religious denominations. But what is very remarkable, every religious denomination, and every student of the Bible, finds that the Scriptures teach precisely what they individually believe, and to the disciples; but they did not bay they are constructing a canal of when we come to examine their creeds, hear it. crafts with wood, etc., which will be a to each other as the opposite poles. great auxiliary in their main shipping | As this fact is so well known it is not operations. They must learn that the Scriptures mode of interpreting the word of God? All cannot be right, and possibly all may be wrong; and this last we have many reasons for believing.

These thoughts should lead every Bible student to inquire in regard to the true nature of the word, which seems to be so easily misrepresented, or so accommodating to the reader's sponse has as yet been made, and as state, or to his peculiar objects of in-

On what principle was the Scriptures written? And why did God, in speaking to man, speak in a way to give different men such opposite views of the same subject? These ley crop is now coming forward into questions, correctly answered, will aid many biblical students to receive instruction and pleasure from passages of Scripture, which are to them now incomprehensible, and only received by blind faith. Let us, then, understand that God always did speak to man in exact adaptation to his state at the time. There is a great variety in our Bible, because there was a very great variety of states or characteristics of mind, to which it was, at as many different times, addressed. The sacred Scriptures consist of God's manifestations or "showings" of Himself to mankind. This principle should never be overlooked in Bible interpetration; it is this: these showings were, in every instance, characterized by the states of the people to whom they were made. That is, "to the pure," as David said, "God shows Himself pure, but to the froward God shows Himself froward." The Bible consists entirely of God's showings of Himself to the froward-to the vindictive, wrathful, selfish, changeable and unforgiving -for there have been no pure to whom He could show Himself pure, and this is the reason why He is represented in Scripture as possessing most of the infirmities and inconsistencies of character that man possesses. This is the reason why every man sees in God a character just like his own-every man makes a God like himself. This explains the reason why most men have looked upon God as taking offense at the conduct of His children, as if He was really angered by it. This is the reason why they have looked upon Him as distant, stern, implacable, unforgiving, but for a word, this is the reason why they have totally misunderstood His character and their own relations to Him. It is because they have taken apparent truths, which these Scripture showings of God of Himself to the froward are, for real truths. In the literal interpretration of the Bible, there are a great many things which the good man cannot believe, whatever he may blindly profess, for in the letter the Bible teaches in one place the very opposite of what it teaches in another. It teaches, indeed, palpable inconsistencies and absurdities, and such as cannot be reconciled or explained on rational principles; and every attempt to do so only excites the righteous contempt and ridicule of honest-thinking men-in fact, drives them further away and makes them hate the very name of religion. Thus we charge the churches with the crime of making infidels by the thousands. Loving men can believe in a loving God, but selfish men, whose chief concern is to make the best of this life and the next, can only believe in a selfish God like themselves; and they find they give the Bible as good authority?

He told the ignorant rabble: "If any man come to Me and hate not his father, and his mother, and children, and wife, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life, he cannot be My disciple." Why did the Lord tell the vulgar rabble this, and yet tell the more intelligent disciples that they must love all men, even their enemies. Do not tell me that hate means love, for the ignorant multitude who were addressed were not

And should it that is truths as they were when not suggest the question, whether brought down to the states of each party has discovered the right froward men, it being an apmind, that God is angry, vindictive, and unforgiving but for a reward. They must learn that there are as many different apparent truths in the Bible as there are classes of froward men to whom God in His word shows himself. This is the real cause of so many different religions and sects.

We will try to make you understand more clearly the difference between real and apparent truth. Real truth is spiritual light that shines clearly. Natural light, when it comes to us pure or unaffected by a medium is white, but when it passes through a medium, as smoked glass, it partakes of the medium. It is no longer real light, but light as it appears after it passes through a vitiating medium. So truth or spiritual light loses its real pure character as it enters a vitiated, froward mind. The natural eye cannot bear to behold the sun even as neither could the natural mind bear the unveiled spiritual truth; the Lord plainty declared this to the dis-
